The News courteously extends congratulations to the winning candidates—and sincerely hopes that it may be eventually justified in extending like congratulations to the people of Maui. At present writing however it gives one the shivers to look over the list of winners. There is no doubt but that the coalition of the democrats and the home rulers, tended to greatly strengthen the home rule ticket, and the best men on the ticket are from the democratic ranks. No particular individual strength manifested itself however, and no matter who had been on either ticket, the result would have been the same.

The new officials will find themselves up against a hard proposition, for the initiation of county government on Maui will prove no child's play. As the News editorially suggests, our new officers should be given a fair chance to establish an honest and economical county government, and if they fail to do so, then it will be time enough to pitch in to them.

Some curiosity is felt as to whether all the new officials will be able to give the required bonds. In case of such failure on the part of the supervisors, the governor appoints and for other officers, the board of supervisors holds the appointing power. It seems likely at present that several of the newly elected officers will be unable to give bonds, unless the surety companies care to take the risk.

The total vote on Maui was something over 1,300, and the average home rule majority is about 100.

HONOR ESTEE'S MEMORY.

Before the adjournment of the Circuit Court at Wailuku, upon suggestion of several members of the bar, a committee consisting of Attorneys D. H. Case, Jas. L. Coke and W. F. Crockett were appointed by Judge Kalua to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Judge Morris M. Estee. On the following day Chairman D. H. Case presented the following resolutions accompanied by able and eloquent addresses by himself and the two other members of the committee.

Whereas, Morris M. Estee, Judge of the United States District Court, for the District of Hawaii, having been taken from us by the hand of death;

Resolved that we, Maui Attorneys of the Hawaiian Bar, hereby express our appreciation of the fact that, in the passing away of Judge Morris M. Estee, the community has suffered the loss of a loyal and patriotic citizen, the bar an honored and learned member, and the bench a just and virtuous judge, that in Judge Estee, Hawaii had a friend who at all times, felt and took a deep interest in the well-being and advancement of this Territory; and

Resolved, that we deeply mourn his death, and extend to his bereaved family and relatives our sympathy in this their hour of trial; and

Further Resolved, that this Honorable Court be requested to spread these resolutions upon the records of this Court.

D. H. CASE
W. F. CROCKETT
JAS. L. COKE

Committee appointed by the Court.
Date at Wailuku, Maui.
October 30, 1903.

The Court, in a few and fitly spoken words of response, ordered the resolutions spread on its records.

Morning Star Entertainment.

On last Saturday evening, the Morning Star Club gave an entertainment consisting of a concert, dance and supper, to celebrate the close of the baseball season and the winning of the MAUI NEWS championship cup. An orchestra consisting of Messrs. Schulmeister, Schrader, Garcia and Enos, with Miss Hoffman at the piano, and a chorus of twenty voices, very acceptably rendered a program of eight numbers.

At the close of the musical program Dr. Weddick, on behalf of the News, presented the championship cup to D. L. Meyer, president of the Club, in a neat and happy speech, and in turn, President Meyer presented the cup to the Morning Star baseball nine. At the conclusion of this ceremony the floor was cleared, and dancing followed till midnight, when supper was announced after which the large and happy crowd of guests bade adieu to their hosts and left for their homes with pleasing memories of the evening's entertainment.

About 30 men who were working on the roads went on a strike for back pay last Monday, being two months in arrears. A small pro rata amount was advanced to them, and on Wednesday morning the entire force was laid off, until satisfactory arrangements can be made to pay them.
